Life In The Millennial Reign

Before you read this, watch a CBS, “60 Minutes” program titled “Making Ideas Into Reality At MIT’s ‘Future Factory’.” It was in watching this program that drove me to write the following, and specific things in it are referred to here. So to be able to understand what is shared in this report, take thirteen minutes first to watch this inspiring “60 Minutes” program.

This program is an amazing assessment or projection of what man can do. And of course the reality is that what we have available today, which we now take for granted, is utterly profound relative to what man had available just one generation ago! Just the fact that we can sit at home and get any information we desire from around the world via the Internet is profound! But equally, the reality is that when Immanuel returns, this potential we have today will in and of itself be regarded as elemental, greatly insufficient, and comparatively lies in the realm of the Dark Ages.

Before addressing some of the changes that will undoubtedly come about with the coming of Immanuel with His bride, let us read Revelation 21:3-5. Here we find a description of what the Millennial Reign will be. “And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, ‘Behold, the tabernacle of God is among men, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself will be among them, and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away.’ And He who sits on the throne said, ‘Behold, I am making all things new.’” Let us here consider what some of these “new” things would be.

First though, it is worthy to note that this examination is starkly different from Christianity’s end-time great wrath and destruction and even annihilation ideas—including their battle of Armageddon and more. And the majority of these adherents are stuck in natural thinking and do not see the true fulfillments. Two of these fallacies are (1) their insistence that a third natural Ezekiel’s temple will be built, which is completely senseless (read here), and (2) that 2 Peter 3:10-13 will be literally fulfilled and earth and its heavens will be consumed by fire. The latter will not and cannot happen by virtue of the Millennial Reign, as well as the great white throne judgment and the lake of fire (which is not literal either) that follow (read here). Remember, God cuts time short lest no flesh would be saved (Matthew 24:20-22).

Briefly, these contrasting, even contradicting, outcomes of wrath and mercy are the way of Yahweh—both possibilities clearly set forth in the Scriptures. (Click here for another example.) By affording mercy yet leaving the testimony of what He would do in wrath, we are thereupon MOST grateful for His mercy, and fearful of His wrath. A fear of God is very healthy, causing us to turn away from evil. So we see in 2 Peter 3:10-13 His fiery judgment, and thus the need for Yahweh to cut time short lest no man be saved; and we are thereby all the more wiser and grateful for His mercy. This mercy fulfillment is of course set forth in Zechariah 13:7-9 and Hosea 6:1-3, where we see what He will really do—after two periods of time (2,000 years of the church) in which He tears and wounds us and we are cut off and die (which brings us to where we are now), He then has mercy on man and says “They are My people” and raises us up and bandages us. Amen! There is therefore no room whatsoever for this fiery wrath and utter and complete destruction in passages like 2 Peter 3 that Christians espouse. They do not know Yahweh God, nor do they know His ways or His works. Rather, it will be as it is written in Isaiah 9:6-7:

For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us; and the government will rest on His shoulders; and His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace. There will be no end to the increase of His government or of peace, on the throne of David and over His kingdom, to establish it and to uphold it with justice and righteousness from then on and forevermore. The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will accomplish this.

Amen! The reality is that Christians have no idea whatsoever as to what the Father is doing and is about to do. And in this examination we will focus on the major necessary changes that will take place when Immanuel returns, though there will be a multitude more as well. Furthermore, I don't believe anybody has ever examined or written on what the Millennial Reign of Immanuel will even be like, especially with any degree of accuracy or specificity. But here we take a close look at these specific events and their outcomes, including the identification of those who will reign during this time. And hopefully as Paul stated in his time and quoted from Isaiah 64:4, we will all the more see its fulfillment:

“Things which eye has not seen and ear has not heard, and which have not entered the heart of man, all that God has prepared for those who love Him.” For to us God revealed them through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God (1 Corinthians 2:9-10).

Two exceedingly great elements or factors that the kingdom Immanuel will bring are—the depth and breadth of God's mind unveiled to man, and the restorative power of what we call “miracles.” For example, regarding the latter, who will need the amazing potential of prosthetics seen in the “60 Minutes” program when there is divine healing and regeneration/restoration? It will be as we read in Revelation 21:3-4 “God Himself will be among them, and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away.” When Yahshua walked upon this earth with His first coming, we read that “He healed them all.” He will do the same when He returns, only on a world-wide level! Thus, there will be no need for medical doctors or hospitals or psychiatrists or psychologists. They will all be relegated to antiquity, things of the “Dark Ages” past when Satan ruled, for now there is a new Ruler!

And regarding the depth and breadth of God's mind now made available to man through Immanuel, that direct access will be resident within the accompanying Bride who is the first to enter into born-from-above heavenly bodies (which is truly Yahweh's goal for all men). For the Bride, there will be no need for a computer when they possess the vast knowledge associated with the infinite mind of God, evidenced by Yahshua when He was on this earth. That first man in the “60 Minutes” report with the white device on his face and head is a type, a mere shadow, of what it will be like to be in an immortal, born-from-above body. The device he wore allowed him to access a computer, which allowed him to access an incredible potentiality for vast amounts of information. Now, take that ability and multiply it by some vast number and place it resident in an immortal body, and what that man did will now look like child’s play. And when necessary, we will anticipate and understand things even before they happen. And now in a spiritual body, as did Yahshua in His heavenly body (Luke 24:36-37), we could appear and then disappear according to need of the moment.

Furthermore, with the coming of the King of kings, nations will be ruled and governed under His headship and order. Courts as we know them now with various witnesses and a jury will be things of the past, replaced by one in an immortal body who has access to the very mind of God, as did Yahshua, knowing every necessary detail of a matter or event. While natural society that remains on this earth in mortal bodies will continue to exist and function as it has for six thousand years, the much-needed presence of spiritual beings will provide elements that make natural resources unnecessary. The natural will still be bound by natural laws requiring food and rest and transportation and instruction, while the spiritual Bride will not be limited by the natural. Even the incredible advancements we deem to be so today, will become mere shadows of the true fulfillments.

On another note, who will need the functions of the United Nations to bring peace and wellbeing to the earth when the Prince of Peace resides here? Furthermore, there will be no more wars, so all military service and facilities and armaments will be used for other useful purposes or destroyed. Isaiah 2:3-4 will be fulfilled:

For the law will go forth from Zion and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem. And He will judge between the nations, and will render decisions for many peoples; and they will hammer their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, and never again will they learn war.

And in like manner, all private firearms and knives and swords and the such will be destroyed. Just as there will no longer be war between the nations, there will no longer be deadly violence between individuals. Remember, he who has the power of death, Satan (lit. of Hebrews 2:14), will be bound in chains. You say how can this happen? Nothing will be able to escape the watchful eyes of Immanuel and His Bride! Nothing! And quite possibly, natural society will be judged or assisted via the same pattern set into action by Moses: “Moses chose able men out of all Israel and made them heads over the people, leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens. They judged the people at all times; the difficult dispute they would bring to Moses, but every minor dispute they themselves would judge” (Exodus 18:25-26). There will be watchful eyes over all society. Yahweh’s light will come to the earth, there will be no darkness, and every man’s deeds will be brought to that light—whether they be good or evil.

Furthermore, entertainment as we know it will be entirely transformed and purged of the corrupt, as well as within the Internet and any remaining news print or magazines or the like. Libraries and bookstores will be purged of all filth and error, as well as Christian bookstores and seminary libraries and their Internet dung (the word of God processed by the flesh and then fed to the people). And might we note here, the churches will be judged more thoroughly than society, for they have corrupted the kingdom. And corrupt pastors and priests and the like will shrink in shame and some in fear.

Advertisements will be eliminated. Clothing will no longer be determined by worldly fashion, but by the government of distinct male-and-female-appropriate attire, thoroughly covering the flesh. Cosmetics and hair colorings for women will be totally eliminated. Given all of this thus far mentioned, can you even imagine what the dumpsters and landfills and such will look like when all of these rejected print and clothing and cosmetic items are purged from the stores and homes and churches and businesses and libraries and more? It will be a purging of mankind that has never before been seen, nor will be seen again! God will clean house!

And regarding the governance of mankind, society will forsake the moral and social slide we have seen since the Curse of 1920 and before, and follow the headship order set forth in 1 Corinthians 11:3: the Father being the head of Immanuel, who now being resident will be the head of every man, who is the head of the woman. There will be no teenage rebellion; music will become godly with proper melody, harmony, and rhythm and edifying lyrics; crime will essentially be eliminated; and homosexuality will be completely purged.

Universities as we know them will essentially be eliminated and transformed. There will be no poverty from nation to nation, nor distinct economic and social classes. Undoubtedly it will be as Paul set forth: "For this is not for the ease of others and for your affliction, but by way of equality—at this present time your abundance being a supply for their need, so that their abundance also may become a supply for your need, that there may be equality; as it is written, 'He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little had no lack'" (2 Corinthians 8:13-15).

The banking system will be entirely transformed, and no longer based on greed and usury. Drug and alcohol addiction and crime will be eliminated, and even prescription drugs and the pharmaceutical industry will be eliminated, as sickness and death will be no more. And the movie industry as we know it with all of its corruption and violence and immorality will be gone and replaced. And the vast porn industry and prostitution will be entirely non-existent, along with other like entertainment sources. And all of the above will be performed worldwide under the searching and revealing eyes of Immanuel and His born-from-above Bride.

There will not be news anchors or commentators as we now know—especially women with their lustful and immodest dress and makeup—giving us their analysis and opinions. Crime will soon be nonexistent, for all will learn to walk in the light in righteousness! Again, when Immanuel comes and establishes His kingdom on the earth, everything up to now will be regarded as the Dark Ages of vile, violent, and ignorant mankind. Light will come, truth will abound, and His kingdom will have no end!

Revealingly, Donald Trump—who defeated Jezebel—with his head of gold is a preceding type of Immanuel, whose goal is to drain the swamp. But He who is the true Head of gold from God will drain the swamp of mankind and replace it with His kingdom where righteousness and justice for all men dwells. “Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.” Come quickly, Immanuel!
