

GARY REPORT

Africa, And Repairing The Breach

When I was in Africa teaching, I told one group of pastors: I wish I could take a computer cable and plug it into my head and plug the other end it into their heads and download everything in my mind about the Bride into their minds so that they could see everything that I see. They all smiled and laughed; but I can tell you, their minds were FAR, FAR, FAR more receptive to Bride truth than any church or group in America. And that is what I wish I could do to you the reader with what is in my head now. And it is not just the raw facts, but the amazing wonder of it and the immense thoroughness of it all! That May 20 writing on the Rechabites is an example of this. These are things that no man has ever seen before—mysteries that have been hidden from man, even though they have always been there right before us, yet we have not had the eyes to see. Instead, we have had the blindness of Christianity and the deceitfulness and temptation of the nations. After Yahshua's departure from this earth, only now are we beginning to see the light.

What we saw and learned in the Report dated May 20 titled "In Search Of The Rechabites," we need to further expound upon. There we saw that the descendants of cursed Cain—the Kenites/Rechabites—with the passage of time were repeated and dramatic testimonies of that which overcomes evil, death, and even Satan. This is a strange thing that that which was evil became life and victory. But as you will see, gratefully this is a way of Yahweh, whereby He uses evil, even the cursed, to later, after a long breach, afford the good—reversing the curse.

There are many avenues we could travel at this point, expounding upon this truth, but the one we will consider here is the bigger picture of this. And with it we can add some remarkable details.

Here is the bigger picture of the ways and works of Yahweh, and He repeats this over and over and over again. You could even call it the template of life, or even sowing and reaping. Whatever you call it, it is His replicable way.

The first step is that He sows a seed. Well, you say, that is simple. But have you considered what that really means? First, it is a bare seed. Then it is buried into the cursed earth. Are you ready for that? That is otherwise called death! It is a place of darkness and confusion and seeming loss or even separation. It is blindness and even wonderment that you will survive. It is waiting and hoping and vulnerability and the threat from the fowl of the air who can devour you or the fear that there will be no water that is essential for your emergence—for without it you will lay there perpetually. And you know that you are buried in an earth that is cursed, which brings forth thorns and thistles from this very environment whereby you are surrounded.

Folks, I have just described for you the experience we have been in for two thousand and even six thousand years. It is called these earthly bodies wherein men walk about in darkness, seeking not to be devoured by the evil one or the deception of the nations or to rot by the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches. And we wait, and we wait, and wait to emerge, to push ourselves out of this darkness of death and come into the light and life that is above. We call this present existence life, but in truth it is death. And what we have to have is to emerge into the light and life that is above, and that is NOT by dying! Dying is just that—an end to life!

At this point, let me lay out a pattern you are already aware of, and is seen in what is just laid out here.

Take a seed—Sow it into darkness—Bring forth emergence and life

Do you see that the first is good and holds hope, and that the latter is the fulfillment? But what is in-between? The terrible breach! This is the dominating pattern of Yahweh, otherwise called, death, burial, and resurrection. You saw it in the Rechabites. There was first Cain, the seed man, and he provided an offering from the cursed earth. Not acceptable—the breach! He killed Abel, was cursed, and wandered about on the earth, residing in a tent, this terrible body we are in (2 Corinthians 5:1). But somehow Yahweh preserved him and his descendants through the flood, and thereupon were regarded as faithful and given the promise that they would never lack a man to stand before Yahweh always (Jeremiah 35:19). Amen. The latter is what we have to have today. So there is the promise, but it dies and goes into darkness, and at the right time and with precious water it emerges and reaches towards the heavens and receives life! This is what we need today after two thousand years of cursed Christianity with Satan as its head.

I am reminded that Brother Shikuku and the other pastor addressed in the May 28 Report, argued with me and objected to the fact that I said that the head of Christianity for two thousand years is in fact Satan—the god and ruler of this world. With great passion and vigor, I rebuked them for accusing my Savior of being responsible, as a head is, for all of the corruption in the church for two thousand years!

Folks, you do not realize how TOTALLY unacceptable and corrupt and a GREAT failure Christianity has been for two thousand years. And the fact is, Africa is exploding with Bride truth—including among all manner of Christians and Muslims alike! I will have another report for you soon concerning this. And this is not man, this is God! And just like Him, “God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to shame the things which are strong, and the base things of the world and the despised God has chosen, the things that are not, so that He may nullify the things that are, so that no man may boast before God” (1 Corinthians 1:27-29).

I ask you, where has America been for twenty-three years with Bride truth emerging from it? Why has there not been ONE SINGLE CHURCH contact me in this time and want me to come share these marvelous truths with them? Instead, why is it that Bride truth is exploding all across that vast continent, while America is dead to it? Because Yahweh God is using the foolish and weak to shame the “wise” and the “strong,” using the things that are not that He may nullify the things that are. Following this Report, I will share more with you about what is taking place in Africa regarding the Bride. It is as written in verse 26 of that passage, "For consider your calling, brethren, that there were not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble." Where are the wise and noble of America's Babylonian Christianity? And even my own family has rejected me, listening to the false prophets of American Christianity. They walk in darkness.

So what has Yahweh done? What He has always done. He turns to the lowly, this time in Africa, who are not encumbered by the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches. He goes to the lowly, so that He may humble the proud. He goes to those who have not, so that He may humble those who have. Yahshua said:

"When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for someone more distinguished than you may have been invited by him, and he who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Give your place to this man,' and then in disgrace you proceed to occupy the last place. But when you are invited, go and recline at the last place, so that when the one who has invited you comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will have honor in the sight of all who are at the table with you. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted" (Luke 14:8-11).

And in verses 16 through 24 He continued:

"A man was giving a big dinner, and he invited many; and at the dinner hour he sent his slave to say to those who had been invited, 'Come; for everything is ready now.' But they all alike began to make excuses. The first one said to him, 'I have bought a piece of land and I need to go out and look at it; please consider me excused.' Another one said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please consider me excused.' Another one said, 'I have married a wife, and for that reason I cannot come.' And the slave came back and reported this to his master. Then the head of the household became angry and said to his slave, 'Go out at once into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.' And the slave said, 'Master, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.' And the master said to the slave, 'Go out into the highways and along the hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled. For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste of my dinner.'"

If you think grandiose Christianity is going to bring forth the pure kingdom and the marriage supper of the Lamb, don't hold your breath! Yahweh is moving in Africa, where hearts are ready. He takes the weak to shame the strong, the things that are not so that He may nullify the things that are. May Yahweh be praised!

May I close with a story that is very encouraging to me, and hopefully to you as well? And here again we see the breach and fulfillment pattern. In the mid 1980s, I was called into the ministry to the poor. I began a weekday radio program called "The Corners Of Your Field," based on Leviticus 23:22, which was aired on multiple radio stations during a period of twelve years. During that time I worked with various ministries to the poor, and my goal was to build a home, a facility, for the needy. And in about 1992, on another man's property out in the country, we began building a beautiful 6,000 square foot home for women and children. In 1993 my family and I moved into it and afterwards took in our first lady who had five young girls. Then in June, 1994, the Spirit came upon me and everything changed! Yahweh began to show me Bride truth, and the man who owned the ranch told me to leave. At the end of August, 1994, we loaded up everything and moved to Washington state, as Yahweh had directed me. The calling to help the poor and needy breached at that point, and I entered into the great and terrible wilderness, which included the loss of my family and a long period of waiting and wondering.

Then on October 9, 2015, I received an email from pastor Caleb Oguta in Kenya, Africa, who expressed his appreciation for the teachings on the website. And you know the rest of the story. At the end of November I flew to Kenya, lived in Caleb's home, slept in his bed, ate African food, and in every manner became an African. For those three months we were constantly traveling, teaching bishops and pastors Bride truth, and were both amazed at the response! While in America there was not one solitary pastor who ever embraced Bride truth, yet in Africa it was just the opposite. They all understood and rejoiced greatly!

Those three months there were twice the amount of time I had planned, and came home hoping that the seed would remain. There was no way I could have expected what has taken place since then. Bride has been taught over the entirety of that vast continent, as well as outside of it in Madagascar and elsewhere! And Bride truth that exploded across that vast continent is more than alive today. I will be providing another update soon. But what I want to share now is what Yahweh is obviously doing, relative to my own life.

I have shared here about the seed planted and then the long and wearisome breach. In my own life, in the mid '80s I was called by Yahweh to care for the needy. But in 1994, that call breached and I went into my own wilderness journeys. And in 2015, Yahweh repaired that breach and led me to Africa, where I became an African, and ever since then have been used by the Father to provide care and support to them. And as it is with the repairing of any breach, the latter is actually the true and lasting fulfillment. And let me add, this fulfillment means a great deal to me. To see something so precious and hopeful die that you invested your life in, and then walk away from it, including the eventual loss of my family, and then for Yahweh to take responsibility for that calling and fulfill it in a way and to such an amazing degree, hopefully leading to even a broader and more encompassing fulfillment, is far, far beyond anything I could even ask or think. And it all began with an effort to provide care for the needy in Dallas, Texas, and it had to die. And frankly, this amazement is exactly what we can expect now in relation to the first Remnant. They too had to die. Today, we must now see unfold across the face of this earth what Africa has experienced. From the beginning of being in Africa, I was told that they believe that a work of God will begin in that continent and spread throughout the earth. This is precisely what we need to see take place now.

In 1994 the Spirit came upon me and taught me Bride truth, something that had never before been seen in the history of man. At that time I believed everyone would rejoice in it, and that kings would drive down our driveway to hear these things. But there was a sorrowful breach! The man who owned the property, along with (of all things) three pastors, judged me and told me to get off of the property. I was victorious when I left that meeting, but sorrow then fell upon me, and I told my wife, "That little book that is so sweet to my mouth, has become so bitter to my stomach" (Revelation 10)!

That was actually a most fitting statement I could make at that time, for that has led us to where we are today. The little book that was eaten two thousand years ago, has become so very bitter in belly-Christianity—the head of gold, Yahshua; the breasts of silver, Bride; and the belly of bronze, Christianity. But oh how I have had a belly-of-bronze breach experience ever since I left the ranch, including losing my entire family to them. Yet here is my hope. I have eaten that little book, and I have paid the price and known the bitterness of it for twenty-three years. And now what I need is the last verse in that most incredible chapter: "You must prophesy again before many peoples and nations and tongues and kings." THAT, is what we need today—the final end-zone play after this long, long drive! And the Father is the only one who can provide and perform this.

And might I add here, this is the sister verse of Revelation 7:9, as well as 10 thru 12, concerning the second Remnant:

After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches were in their hands; and they cry out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the [twenty-four] elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, "Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

Again, Yahweh is using Africa over America to humble it.

We look to the Father to complete what He has begun.
