Redeeming The Work Of The Serpent Sperm, Part 2

Once again Rian Burger has brought forth truth that is both profound and highly revealing. It has to do with the kingdom of heaven, and focuses on the two major works on this earth and that is: those of Satan and those of Yahshua. And this is particularly relevant for the last two thousand years when two kingdoms have coexisted on the earth—the kingdoms of this world ruled over by Satan, and the kingdom of God/heaven that was established here by Yahshua and then He left. Before I go any further, let me provide you a paragraph Rian provided in an email to me. This will set the stage for this examination.

It's interesting to note that both Yahshua and Satan were sent down to the earth egg. One came to take mankind to death and the grave, and the other came to effect a process that would take man out of the grave, from death into life (John 5:26). In order for Yahshua to accomplish salvation from death for mankind via the cross, He had to take on the form of the serpent (Numbers 21:8). And when He died, He penetrated the earth egg and fertilized it with the truth that at an appointed time, it would cause the dead to resurrect unto judgment, that they may live according to the will of God in the spirit: "For the gospel has for this purpose been preached even to those who are dead, that though they are judged in the flesh as men, they may live in the spirit according to the will of God" (1 Peter 4:6). [Also Ephesians 4:8-10, Romans 10:7, and Isaiah 7:11-14.] Yahshua was the firstfruits of the resurrection of the dead, which will lead to those eventually resurrecting from the dead. They will still be earth-bound, just like Yahshua still had an earthy body when He resurrected, and like Him they too will eventually ascend alive and be transformed and receive their immortal, incorruptible bodies. It would seem that, according to 1 Peter 4:6, once they have come out of the grave, they will be judged according to men in the flesh. This judgment is what will purify them so that they can live according to God in the spirit, meaning that they too will, in time, ascend alive and receive an immortal and incorruptible body.

First, and most important, did you see the parallel of Satan and Yahshua? They are the only two who were sent to this earth to effect the will and plan of Yahweh. Satan was sent here really as a preceding John the Baptist so as to baptize ALL men into death, and this he has thoroughly accomplished. But in any baptism, upon being immersed into the waters of death, one MUST be brought out of them and the pneuma, breath, restored. This is what Rian is speaking of here—the two works effected by Satan and Yahshua.

Rian noted, "In order for Yahshua to accomplish salvation from death for mankind via the cross, He had to take on the form of the serpent (Numbers 21:8)." This is incredibly interesting. What Rian was noting was that there have to be two serpents cast down to the earth, or two sperm, if you would. (And keep in mind, this is precisely what you have with the two Remnant. There have to be two separate works—one of death and the other bringing life. Again, baptism.) And this is precisely what we see in the serpent on the pole. Yahshua had to become the serpent sperm, if you would, in order for man to eventually be born from above. So yes, there were in effect two sperm (though they were in truth one) that came down out of heaven so as to bring forth offspring.

Let us look at this further. There is a dispute among Christians as to whether Yahshua's crucifixion was on a cross or on a solitary stake. But the fact is that the Greek word "stauros," translated "cross," actually means "an upright stake." Furthermore, the bronze serpent on the standard in the wilderness would very likely have been an upright stake as well. But either way, Yahshua became a serpent with its tubular body, EVEN A SPERM! In equal testimony, Moses's staff/rod was cast down and became a serpent (Exodus 4:2-4). So Rian is entirely correct: "And when He died, He penetrated the earth egg and fertilized it with the truth that at an appointed time, would cause the dead to resurrect unto judgment." The serpent sperm had to turn to good, the curse being taken upon Yahshua, so that mankind can first come out of the grave and in their own time be born from above. As Rian stated, "both Yahshua and Satan were sent down to the earth egg." Amazing! I hope you understand this.

Before we leave this critical subject, let us look further at the bronze serpent on the pole. Of course the serpent was Yahshua, and by looking upon it they escaped death, which in part has been true for two thousand years. We say "in part" because for this period of time men still die. But setting that aside, let us briefly examine yet another important testimony regarding the church and the bronze serpent.

In 2 Kings 18, Hezekiah began the task of cleansing and restoring the temple and the feasts. As a part of this cleansing, we read in verse 4:

"He [Hezekiah] removed the high places and broke down the sacred pillars and cut down the Asherah. He also broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the sons of Israel burned incense to it; and it was called Nehushtan [or "piece of bronze"]."

Two things here regarding the church. As addressed in the audio teaching "The Father's Unfaithful Wife," the female goddess Asherah testified of Satan as the wife of Yahweh. Remember, the body you have is from below, and is given to you by Satan—the serpent sperm cast down to the earth egg. Thus Yahweh forbade that the Asherah be planted near His altar (Deuteronomy 16:21). So, what then was the identity of the bronze serpent on the pole which Yahweh rejected? In King Nebuchadnezzar's dream in Daniel 2, there was the head of gold (Immanuel), the breasts and arms of silver (the Bride), the belly and thighs of bronze (Christianity), and the legs of iron (the nations). It is most fitting that the Nehushtan was associated with the wilderness experience, as well as with bronze. And the reality is, it was Christianity. So one has to ask the question: Why was it that that which provided life in the wilderness, was destroyed when the temple was restored? The answer? Because that which was to bring life was corrupted by kingdom flesh man, and they worshiped the system instead of worshiping God. The first time there was an attempt to break in pieces Nehushtan Christianity was the Reformation, when the Protestants tore down the worship of Catholicism. But today, the worship of Nehushtan Protestantism must be broken in pieces as well. Do you see this? The kingdom of heaven was placed into the hands of flesh man under the headship of Satan, and the outcome has been corruption of the kingdom ever since, and it must be torn down!

Continuing our examination, Rian then noted:

1 Peter 4:6 is another wonderful evidence that Yahweh will not send people to eternal hell to be tormented forever and ever. Yes, they will be judged according to their deeds in the flesh as you have pointed out on so many occasions, and that for the purpose that they may receive life and live according to God in the Spirit. 1 Corinthians 15:20-23, which you also sometimes refer to, further highlights this wonderful truth and hope:

But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who are asleep. For since by a man came death, by a man also came the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, after that those who are Christ's at His coming,

Amazingly, it would appear that Christ actually woke the dead up in order to tell them the truth [1 Peter 4:6]; so death truly is synonymous with sleeping, just like Yahshua said it was.

So bringing this all together as simply as possible, my question on the whole matter is: Is the natural testimony of the sperm making it to the egg and penetrating it to fertilize it in order for the earth to give birth to the departed spirits, in fact a second redeeming work of Yahshua? He had to come and identify with man in becoming like the first serpent sperm being cast down to the earth, but now taking on sin that leads to death. He Himself had to die and penetrate the earth egg so as to fertilize it with truth by preaching to the dead that were asleep. And thereby, at the appointed time, the earth can give birth to the departed spirits, as it is written: "Your dead will live; their corpses will rise. You who lie in the dust, awake and shout for joy, for your dew is as the dew of the dawn, and the earth will give birth to the departed spirits" (Isaiah 26:19). Thus, they will resurrect and be judged in order to live according to the will of God.

What Rian is speaking of here is the event that takes place after the seventh-day Millennial Reign of Immanuel, and even after Satan is then released for a short time, which, as noted here, would be a period of seven years. That then brings man to the resurrection of the rest of the dead, which Rian is speaking of here. This is when Yahweh brings the mass of all mankind out of the grave for the great white throne judgment. If you are not familiar with this period, read Resurrection and Judgment.

What Rian is now going to address is something that is a long-standing mystery, and that is Yahshua going and preaching to the dead upon His crucifixion. But, this is definitely written in the Scriptures, and how it all took place is a mystery.

In the natural, when the semen is released, it contains millions of sperm, but only one manages to reach the egg and penetrate it. Satan was cast down to the earth egg, but I know of only one person who was able to penetrate the "earth" egg, and that was Yahshua! Here are a few scriptures in support of this:

1Peter 3:19: "By which also He went and preached unto the spirits in prison."

1Peter 4:6: "For this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit."

John 5:25: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live."

John 5:28: "Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice."

Yahshua did indeed penetrate the earth, and what did He do? He ministered the truth to the souls in the grave. So I'm wondering whether this was the fertilization process that would eventually lead to the earth giving birth to the departed spirits, as is so wonderfully revealed in Isaiah 26:19 (which I know is one of your favorite scriptures)?

"Your dead will live; their corpses will rise. You who lie in the dust, awake and shout for joy, for your dew is as the dew of the dawn, and the earth will give birth to the departed spirits."

The two 1 Peter verses address the mystery of Yahshua preaching to the dead, and the latter two verses in John 5, as well of course Isaiah 26:19, are fulfilled first by the first-fruits first Remnant resurrection, followed a thousand years later by the "rest of the dead," the vast host of Christians who have died, as well as the rest of mankind who have died from the beginning.

Then I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received the mark on their forehead and on their hand; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed.

Read Resurrection and Judgment and you will understand this better. But Rian's point is that somehow Yahshua penetrated the earth and preached to the dead, which is understandable in that He would later return and deliver them, and that would be all of mankind. (Here again we see the two-bird or even sow-and-reap principle where the first is the promise and the latter is the fulfillment. This working principle is VERY common in the ways of Yahweh.) He proclaimed the reverse of the curse that has been on man since the Garden, and ALL men thereafter were created from the serpent sperm being cast down to the earth egg—Satan’s realm of domain since then. And MOST IMPORTANT, His body was NOT created by that serpent sperm, but by the Spirit of God (Luke 1:35, Matthew 1:18), insuring that the day was coming when men would not live in a body that was from the cursed dust of the ground which Satan has been eating for six-thousand years (Genesis 3:14), but will indeed, each in their own order, be born from above. THAT is what Yahshua secured when He came and laid His life down, and three days later picked it up again, ascended alive at Bethany, was in heaven for eight days, and then came back in a body that was NOT from the serpent sperm but was in all form heavenly! He was born from above! THAT is His purpose and plan for all mankind, but each in their own order.

In Rian’s closing, he once again testifies to the hope and promise that though mankind is delivered out of death, what MUST come about is the full and complete hope of being born from above—delivered from this fleshly body, and putting on the heavenly. Amen! “Wretched man that I am! Who will set me free from the body of this death?” (Romans 7:24).

Just another thought I had. It's the sperm that fertilizes the egg. You have both Satan and Yahshua who came down to the earth egg. One could also say that both were also, in one sense, born from above, thus sharing that same common attribute. So they both could also share the attribute of the sperm, although Satan being specifically the serpent sperm. Although Yahshua is NOT the serpent sperm, it would seem that He would in testimony be the Sperm that penetrates the earth egg, and the only one who could do so. This fertilization leads to producing life, as one could deduce from John 5:26:

"For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself."

This natural life produced from Yahshua penetrating the earth egg is not the life we need, but a means for the earth to give birth to the departed spirits so that they, as stated in 1 Peter 4:6, "might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit." The latter comes once they too ascend to receive their immortal and incorruptible bodies.

The reality is that for two thousand years, “getting saved” was only a half-truth, or a half-product. The reality is that until we are born from above in its fullest sense whereby we are caught up into heaven alive and there these bodies are transformed from earth-created to heavenly-created, then we are still a functioning part of Satan’s creation. And this Christian idea that physical death somehow ushers us into that eternal life experience, is nothing less than the ongoing deception of the long-standing ruler of this world, Satan. We do not die and go to heaven and are in a conscious state. No, Psalm 13:3 calls it what it is: “Enlighten my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death.” Or as Yahshua clearly stated regarding Lazarus who had already died, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I go, so that I may awaken him out of sleep.” And once Satan has been bound and ultimately cast into the lake of fire for purification, then the long awaited resurrection of the dead can and will take place at the beginning of the eighth “day” when “the earth will give birth to the departed spirits,” and man reenters his former body. This very thing Yahshua demonstrated with at least three individuals, not to speak of those recorded in Matthew 27:52-53: “The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised; and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection they entered the holy city [the great white throne judgment] and appeared to many.” This is what has to happen to all mankind, just as Rian so clearly addressed.

Yahweh has opened our eyes to see and understand things that have never before been revealed, and we look to Him to fulfill them—the only one who can! Blessed be His name forever! Come quickly, Immanuel, and send us Your Spirit! Amen!

Blessings,

Gary
