

GARY REPORT

Taking The Kingdom By Force

People fail to see the simplest of warnings that God has set forth to mankind, even a warning label of sorts on the original product—man—placed there at the very beginning in the Garden of Eden. And then some three thousand years later, in Ecclesiastes Solomon equally cautions man with this reminder:

That which has been is that which will be, and that which has been done is that which will be done. So there is nothing new under the sun (1:9).

And in a like message:

That which is has been already and that which will be has already been, for God seeks what has passed by (3:15).

And what we find is that a most important and highly impacting pattern was indeed set forth in the Garden in the beginning which is in fact fulfilled just before the coming of Immanuel—today. That pattern is amazingly simple, and is:

The deception of the woman by the serpent, Satan, and the man naively accepting and joining in her fall.

This destroyed the Garden experience, causing them to be cast out; revealed their nakedness; and introduced death! And what you are going to find now is that at the nations level, and directly affecting the kingdom of God, this deception is in fact the Curse of 1920 when women pursued and received the right to vote—becoming like the man. Morally and culturally, everything has been downhill from there on, departing from two thousand years of unbroken moral and social norms and practices, as more and more women have demanded equality with the man, including the escalating elements of the Women's Rights Movement of the 1960s and '70s. The black widow spider has evermore been spinning her web and hoping to devour her suitor. Of course in this sick philosophy of equality, wherein there is no difference between men and women, the next in the fall was that there would be the acceptance of same-sex relationships and even their marriage. This depravity of man today has taken him into the deep gutters of immorality, with even standing open sewage for all to see. But to understand this better, let's go back to the Garden and find out where we went wrong. This is critical to understand, especially if we want to escape it and its dire fateful consequences!

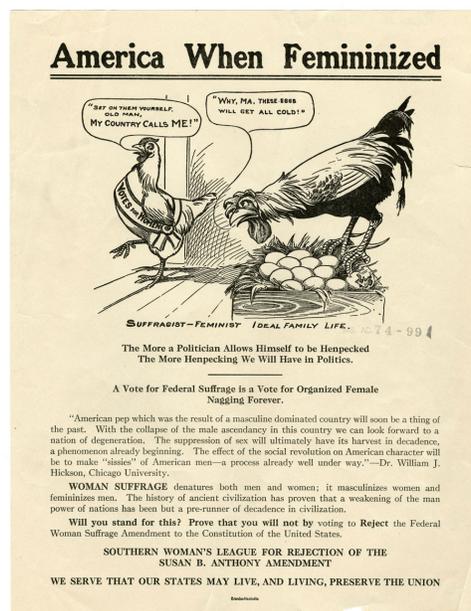

You know the truly foundational story in Genesis 3 where the serpent, Satan, tempted the woman and she listened to him/her and ate from the forbidden fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. And her reply to God when challenged was, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate" (vs. 13). And most important and significant is the confirming message penned four thousand years later when we are instructed in 1 Timothy 2:14: “And it was not Adam who was deceived, but the woman being greatly deceived, fell into transgression.” And it was for this very reason that in that same passage, Paul clearly and resolutely concludes: “Moreover, I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise the authority of/over a man, but to remain silent.” But, the church and the mass of mankind ignore this clear instruction, and most certainly with the same ill and destructive consequences! Clearly, the weakness in the fall of mankind in the Garden and today is undeniably the woman, the weaker vessel, and then the man listening to her.

Let me get straight to the point. Folks, when are we ever going to learn? You do not give equal governing rights to women, the weaker vessel who is easily deceived! Given the consequence in the Garden, is that not obvious? All we have been doing since the Curse of 1920 is repeating the plight of the original Garden. Do you see this? Upon their fall, God began His address to Adam with one clear statement: “Because you have listened to the voice of your woman,” and He then cursed him and cast him and the woman out of the Garden.

In 1920, there were voices of reason and wisdom—from men and women alike—concerning this grave departure that would be inevitable destruction! But instead of doing what was right, society now listened to the voice of the woman, who listened to Satan. They were deceived, and mankind partook of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, and we have been cursed ever since! In America alone, since barbaric women-ordered Roe v. Wade instituted the mass slaughter of children, more than 55 million babies have been murdered through abortions. That is equivalent to wiping out the entire populations of California and New York! Without a doubt, this is the most catastrophic and barbaric act since the Garden, especially given the impact on a worldwide level—throwing open wide the floodgates of mass infanticide!

And speaking of voices of reason, here was a warning set forth in 1920. Click here to view the larger image, and most importantly to read the text.

Doctor Hickson was spot on in his warning of “a nation of degeneration” and “decadence.” Such we are! And the fact is that we have been and are today the proverbial frog in a pan of water who does not realize its perilous state because of gradual changes—ours since 1920. (Watch “The Slippery Slope of Compromise.”)

And let’s get back to our original point—that what is taking place in America and throughout the world today, is precisely what was set forth and took place in the beginning in the Garden: “That which has been” In fact, it is undoubtedly its fulfillment. Furthermore, what women are actually trying to do, although unknowingly, is that they are abandoning their proper place as wives and mothers and are seeking to take the kingdom of God by force, even as Yahshua stated in Matthew 11:12: “From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.” And this violence originates from the same spirit as that of Satan and all the angels who equally “forsook their proper abode” (Jude 1:6)! Women are forsaking their proper abode as mothers and wives and are seeking the place of the man! Another graphic testimony and warning of this is this message titled “The Temptation” from a 1911 edition of Life Magazine.

Look very carefully at the woman's skirt and you will see the clearly implied message—she wants to wear the man's pants, to have his God-given authority! Her skirt is shaded specifically to have the appearance of being man's pants. And as in the Garden, it is Satan who is tempting her to join him/her in abandoning her place, her proper abode.

And look at women today. Not only do they dress like men, but they wear their hair like men. They want men's jobs; they tattoo themselves like men (both being an abomination). In the 1920's they began smoking like men, regarding it to be a phallic symbol of a man's authority, calling them "torches of freedom." And on and on and on it has gone, where the woman wants to take the place and authority that lies solely with the man, falsely calling it "liberation," when in fact it is bondage to Satan! But most gratefully, today men are beginning to do something that no normal woman can do, clearly setting him apart from her quest for his place. Men are finally resorting to wearing the beard, the one thing women cannot mimic! I hope this is a sign of the beginning of the end for these usurping women, and Satan.

And let me remind you, or reveal to you for the first time, that God's established patterns are replicable, especially the patterns regarding authority. For example, at the basic core level, we see that God is the head and has the right and responsibility to rule over the man. And from God came the man. Now, let us take this one step further. From Adam came the woman. God took a rib from him and created her. Thereby, the man has the right and responsibility to rule over the woman. God is the head of man; and equally, the man is the head of the woman (1 Corinthians 11:3).

This truth and irrevocable order is confirmed at the fall as well. There were two curses on the woman. First, that when she brings forth offspring by her union with her husband, it would be done with pain (Genesis 3:16). But also in that verse we read: "Yet your desire will be for the place of your husband, and he will rule over/master you." The curse on the woman is that she would rebel against her husband, desiring his place, and he would have to rule over her. Click here to learn more about the certainty of the translation of this verse. And confirming this translation even further, plus supporting the failure of the man and men today, we are becoming feminized and are once again listening to and relinquishing authority to the woman—the specific prelude to Adam's curse and dire failure: "Because you have listened to the voice of your woman"

So I ask you, men: Why is it that we have turned authority, which rests solely in the hands of the man, over to the woman, once again joining in the weakness and failure of Adam and listening to her? Why do women vote? Why do women run companies? Why are women in places of governmental authority? Why are women judges? Why are women in the pulpit or have become teachers of the Scriptures? Why are women now the majority in our universities? And even, why are women wearing our pants, our clothing, or cutting their hair like a man? Why aren't they at home bearing and taking care of our children like they are supposed to? It is written, "women will be saved through the bearing of children if they continue in faith and love and sanctity with self-restraint" (1 Timothy 2:15). But now let us take this matter one vital and in every way fulfilling step further, and is by far the most significant point in this writing—in fact the main point!

For the first time in the history of man, there has been a worldwide movement for women to try to take the kingdom by force. Never before has this even been possible. But now, just before the coming of Immanuel, women worldwide, and seemingly especially so here in America, have sought to fulfill the Bride. How is this so? Let us see.

Starting back at the Curse of 1920 and forwarding up to now, let us look at the similarities between women today and the promised Bride. First, women want equality with men. So, what is wrong with that? As we have seen, as God is the head of the man, so the man is the head of the woman. When the woman seeks to be equal to the man, it is the same as man wanting to be equal to God. Both are the identical essential governmental order, and to reject that order is rebellion that leads to chaos and certain inevitable failure. There is no more equality between the man and the woman, than there is equality between God and man. In both cases, rejection of this divine order is rebellion, which is as the sin of witchcraft (1 Samuel 15:23).

So, women today want the right to rule—in the home, in society, in religion, and all the way up to being the president of the United States or a leader of another country. But women do not have the right to rule or govern. Isaiah 3:12 clearly warns: “O My people! Their oppressors are children, and women rule over them. O My people! Those who guide you lead you astray and confuse the direction of your paths.” So, why do women now seek this governing authority? Again, it is man’s effort to bring forth, even to be, the Bride.

The Bride is governmentally and spiritually a female work—the bride to Yahshua, the Esther. Women today, though entirely unaware of it, are seeking to be the fulfillment of the Bride to Immanuel. As has been repeatedly stated here, they are seeking to take the kingdom by force. Their minds are not aware of this, but their spirits are. Our spirits know things that our natural thinking is not even conscious of. This is true with all mankind. For example, men throughout history have known that there has to be a supreme male deity, and they have sought to express that deity in multiple ways. And, they would thus fashion a female deity as his wife. And that is what women seek to do today in seeking to have equality with the man. They in fact seek to fulfill the Bride of Immanuel. And in truth, by their very failed efforts, we know that the true fulfillment is at hand. But, the Women’s Rights Movement and all who seek to benefit from it, will be Vashties and fall far short and not go to the King when called, thus not being allowed to come into His presence (Esther 1:19).

And women, do not use Deborah as a lame excuse to justify you being a teacher or pastor or any such office, for she is a prophetic type of the Bride. Deborah sat under a “palm tree,” which literally means “erect” and speaks of being under a male work with a head. And her husband was Lapidoth, whose name means “torch,” which is a rod with the head on fire. Deborah was in every way a testimony of the Bride who is under Immanuel. The only way any man or woman can fulfill a Deborah is to become His bride. And the usurping efforts by women today in seeking the place of a man will utterly fail and they will be disqualified and rejected.

And this feminism is not limited to natural gender alone, for all one has to do to see this same threatening process is to look at this nation’s politics. The ways of God and man do not relate to us only as individuals, but also corporately. Just look at the politics of this nation. In the Garden of American politics there is equally male and female. On the one hand there are the masculine Republicans who have the right to rule; and on the other hand there are the easily-deceived, emotion-driven, rebellious feminine Democrats. Ugh! As the female, they do not have the right to rule. But like an unreasoning, emotions-driven woman, they squeal and scream and accuse in an effort to get their way. They are as it is written: "It is better to live in a corner of a roof than in a house [or Senate] shared with a contentious woman" (Proverbs 21:9). And only ten verses later this deplorable state is characterized even more severely: "It is better to live in a desert land than with a contentious and vexing woman" (vs. 19).

Democrats are pathetic, especially when they are displaced from power. They are the vexing and contentious woman, which we see evidenced before us today. And hopefully the man with the head of gold, President Trump, testifies to our much-needed and soon-coming solution regarding this rampant feminism taking place in mankind—the coming of the One who truly is the head of gold, Immanuel! Trump's prophetic testimony is actually most hopeful and encouraging.

If Immanuel comes soon, as is expected, President Trump would be the last Trump-et to sound, as it is written in Revelation 11:15: "Then the seventh angel sounded; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, 'The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever.'" Amen! This is the same trumpet in 1 Thessalonians 4:16-18: "For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words." Come quickly, Immanuel, to save us from ourselves and to claim Your bride.

Furthermore concerning women today, they want to possess the beauty of the Bride, but through all of their cosmetics and worldly adornment? All you are doing ladies is being a fraud, for apart from the cosmetics you don't really look like that. It's a charade! It is called "make up" for a reason, ladies. When you make up something, it is otherwise called a lie. And "cosmetics" comes from the Greek word "cosmos," or "world," even worldly appearance. And Avon is the Hebrew word for "iniquity." Furthermore, click here to see what the early church writers said concerning a woman's proper adornment, etcetera. Women, you are dressing like harlots, committing harlotry with the world, mystery Babylon (Revelation 17:1-5), living for and by your flesh, and Immanuel is coming for a pure bride. Dress like one, not like the world. Regarding your cosmos/worldly appearance, first Remnant Matthew 23:12 and second Remnant 14:11 instruct us: "Whoever exalts himself shall be humbled; and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted." Ladies, you are trying to take the kingdom by force with your cosmos, trying to even look like something you are not. It is as the early church writer, Tertullian, accurately noted in 198 AD: "How unworthy of the Christian name it is to wear a fictitious face—you on whom simplicity in every form are enjoined! You, to whom lying with the tongue is not lawful, are lying in appearance." Well and accurately said!

Women today are as it is written in Jeremiah 4:30: “And you, O desolate one, what will you do? Although you dress in scarlet, although you decorate yourself with ornaments of gold, although you enlarge your eyes with paint, in vain you make yourself beautiful.” And in Ezekiel 23:40, 41, and 43 we read again where makeup is identified specifically with harlotry: “[men from afar] came—for whom you bathed, painted your eyes and decorated yourselves with ornaments; and you sat on a splendid couch with a table arranged before it on which you had set My incense and My oil. ... Then I said concerning her who was worn out by adulteries, ‘Will they now commit adultery with her when she is thus?’” And of course the infamous Jezebel “painted her eyes and adorned her head” (2 Kings 9:30) before she came to her end, being pushed out of her window and thereupon trampled to death under the hooves of Jehu’s horses!

But in clear contrast, in 1 Timothy 2:9-11 we read: “Likewise, I want women to adorn themselves with proper clothing, modestly and discreetly, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly garments, but rather by means of good works, as is proper for women making a claim to godliness. A woman must quietly receive instruction with entire submissiveness.” And in Titus 2:3-5 we equally read: “Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, not malicious gossips nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good, so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, to be sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God will not be dishonored.” Amen!

So, what will the true bride of Immanuel be? Not those who commit harlotry with the world, defiling themselves, or those who usurp the authority of the man, seeking to stand in his place and take the kingdom by force. But rather, it will be those who reject the world and seek righteousness in every area of their lives, including a godly appearance. I warn you, if you choose to be of this world, to dress like it, look like it, talk like it, and long for its pleasures, you will not be caught up to Immanuel but remain here where your desires and affections will hold you. The Bride makes herself ready, and she will enter into the place where her heart truly lies—that which is above, the kingdom of righteousness.

And governmentally, Immanuel’s bride requires not being a Christian, for even as Eve came out of Adam, so the Bride must come out of the Body of Christ. Read “Why I Am No Longer A Christian.”
