The New Garden Of Eden

In Jeremiah 31:22 we read: “For Yahweh has created a new thing in the earth—A woman will encompass a man.” What can this mean? What is the fulfillment? We certainly need a new thing because the old is not working for us. In this writing we find truth that has not been seen before, giving us hope for the days before us.

Let us begin with an examination of the original “garden of God,” the “garden of Eden.” The first to be placed in the garden was the man, made from the dust of the earth. The second to be placed there was of course the woman. And one must ask how that turned out. Not good at all. The woman listened to the serpent and ate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, gave it then to the man, the man ate from it, they were cursed, and then cast out of the Garden. That original pattern was not profitable, and turned into ruin. In fact, it was a first-bird pattern that meant death for six thousand years!

So what was Yahweh to do? What pattern would in fact result in life, and that everlasting? THAT is what we need. We now need the second-bird pattern of Leviticus 14 that brings life and ascension! Of necessity, it must still be an Adam and an Eve in flesh bodies, so how can we get beyond the limitations of the original Garden? What we find is that Yahweh has to flip and split the pattern. Hereupon, as it is written, the woman will encompass the man. Let us see what this means.

First though, in order for this to be accomplished, it had to be elevated to the spiritual—the higher realm. But even then there is a limitation, and that is that man is still in the flesh. Also, there cannot be an individual Adam and an individual Eve again. So the next option is to create two distinctly different works—one being a male Adam, and the other being a female Eve. And I can tell you, if you go with the teachings of Christianity, the required solution is non-existent! All they can see or even conceive of is a one-man kingdom of the Body of Christ. That’s it! And that is woefully lacking! It is about as useful as having the original Garden, but stopping solely with Adam. But Yahweh clearly introduced the absolute necessity of a female work—“It is not good for the man to be alone; I will make him a helper suitable for him.” Furthermore, God declared, “she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.” And if God performed this at that time, then why can’t Christians see the necessity of a male and a female work today—other than the fact that they are blind from birth (John 9:1f)? Thus we have:

Individual
Adam & Eve

Elevated to →

Male Adam work &
Female Eve work

So, we see that there have to be male and female works; but even that means nothing if Yahweh just reversed the order of the two. That is not sufficient. No, something else must be added to this for it to succeed, and that is one of the two must be split, and the other pass between the two parts. This is God's covenant pattern, and is profusely evidenced in the writing The Covenant Pattern. And obviously, it is the female work that must be split, and this is precisely what the Father has done. And in so doing, He had to have a second Eden where both could take place, and that is what Yahshua effected when He came to this earth. And this time at the higher kingdom level, most appropriately He splits the woman, the Bride, and the masculine Body of Christ passes between the two parts. Intercourse. Thereupon, as it is written, the woman now encompasses the man. This is the "new thing"!

Bride—Body of Christ—Bride

And by doing this, the Garden is now made clean. But, the reality is that that cannot fully happen until the second female covenant part is, of course, fully established. Only then can the kingdom be made clean and be fulfilled and there is fruitfulness! Only then can true life come forth, evidenced by the meaning of Eve's name, which is "life"! It is with the establishment of the second Remnant Bride that true life can finally come to mankind. But for two thousand years the kingdom, the church, has been an unclean work—which is MOST evident!

Considering this, one must ask if there is a testimony in the Scriptures that "It is not good for the man [the Body of Christ] to be alone"? Indeed there is! The fact is that the Body of Christ has been alone for two thousand years. And the fact as well is that that will be the case until the Body is put to sleep, its side is opened, a rib removed, and a Bride is formed—the second Remnant bride, the two now encompassing the Body. But, what is indeed the testimony regarding a lone Body of Christ as Christians believe? Here it is.

In Genesis 11, we read that "the whole earth used the same language and the same words." They traveled to the land of Shinar and said to one another:

"Come, let us build for ourselves a city, and a tower whose top will reach into heaven, and let us make for ourselves a name, otherwise we will be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."

And we see in verse 3 that "they used brick for stone, and they used tar for mortar." So the tower was made out of bricks, and spiritually these indicate works made by human hands—Christianity. Acts 7:48 states that "the Most High does not dwell in houses made by human hands." And as well, when the sons of Israel were in bondage in Egypt, they had the responsibility of making bricks, and the quota and difficulty of making them was ever increasing. And as with the tower, they have made themselves a name as well—Christians. And they seek to reach into heaven and go there. Without a doubt, the tower of Babel is Christianity.

And making this fact even more certain is the clear identity of "Babel" and "Babylon," even Mystery Babylon. The word "Babylon" comes from the Hebrew word "Babel." It is the same word and means "mixture" or "confuse." Unquestionably, mystery Babylon "clothed in purple and scarlet" (Revelation 17:4) is Christianity. And further attesting this, in Mark 15:17 and 20, and John 19:2 and 5, at the hands of His afflictors Yahshua was clothed in purple. But in Matthew 27:28 and 31 He was clothed in scarlet. So which one was it? No, the number one purpose of the Scriptures is to prophesy, and clearly we see that Christianity is Mystery "Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and of the abominations of the earth," "clothed in purple and scarlet" (Revelation 17:5 & 4).

So, keep in mind here that we have two testimonies regarding Christianity. One is as a male work in needing to bring forth fruitfulness and the need for a bride. And the other is the testimony of a female, Mystery Babylon, who commits harlotry with the world. Both are true and applicable, so you have to keep this in mind. Both are simply types to reveal what Christianity is and what they are doing.

In the Revelation 17 testimony, Christianity is cast as a woman, Babylon, committing harlotry with the world, which is easy to see in the church. It is the kingdom of heaven given to flesh man who defiles the kingdom with its association with the world. But what about the obviously like testimony, now regarding the tower of Babel? What is it telling us concerning the church? The female Mystery Babylon testimony is harlotry. So what about the male testimony?

The reality is, the Body of Christ has had no wife for two thousand years. The first Remnant, the first Bride work, died out, leaving the Body to be alone. So what does the Body do as a male? He can either commit harlotry with the world, or he can masturbate. And the latter is precisely that testimony in the tower of Babel that reaches into heaven. What is that tower? It is an erection that can only waste its seed on the ground, just as Onan did (Genesis 38:9). A man spilling his seed on the ground is neither unlawful nor a sin. But what Onan did in spilling his seed on the ground was that he refused to bring forth offspring in his deceased brother's name (Deuteronomy 25:5, Genesis 38:8). It is for that reason that Yahweh killed Onan. And it is the same issue with Christianity. They alone cannot produce the fruits of the kingdom and they die. (Read here to see Er and Onan's clear testimony as the two thousand years of the church.)

And the inadequacy of Christianity in bringing forth fruitfulness is that the first wife (the first Remnant) died, and the second wife (the second Remnant) has not yet arrived. So, it either commits harlotry, or as would be the case with the tower of masculine Babel, it has to waste its seed on the ground. What Babel Christianity has needed is a wife, but it would be two thousand years before that was even possible. And even so she, the two-part Remnant, enters into immortality prior to the Body, and is the wife of the immortal Son of God. And it will be three thousand years before the Body even comes into that state of immortality. What then? We will leave that in the hands of God. And meanwhile, He has to get His wife, Satan, into a better state as well. And that will take even longer!

So now you understand what the tower of Babel's fulfillment truly is. Without a wife, Christianity can only spill its seed on the ground, testified to by Onan. And of course what we need is the third-son Shelah or Shiloh fulfillment where the blind man's eyes are opened. And today this is exactly what we are finding and experiencing in the Bride. Blessed be Yahweh!

And let me add one final note. I am an intercessor, not by choice but placed upon me by the Father. Even the example in the flesh that Yahweh gave to me for my own life was Rees Howells, whose life example is set forth in the book, Rees Howells Intercessor. And for the cause of intercession, I had to lose my wife as well. As with Christianity, by my own wife being gone since 2003, I have certainly known Christianity's condition of not having a wife. I have lived it. And I also know the experience of the loss of all my five children, though my oldest, Christi, is now turning her heart back to me. But intercession gains authority, and I hope for it to turn to the positive final fulfillment.

I hope this writing is a blessing to you,
